

Deloris Mae Lough

April 5, 1941 - March 20, 2021

Deloris Mae (Zinser) Lough, age 79, entered the gates of Glory on March 20, 2021. She had fiercely but graciously battled the effects of Parkinson's disease for many, many years.

Deloris was a graduate of Grafton High School and married to her high school sweetheart, David Lough, for 62 years. She worked at Westinghouse after graduation until the birth of her first daughter, Cheryl. Deloris and Dave went on to have two more children, Rick and Susie, and raised their family in Fairmont.

Deloris later worked as a saleslady at Stone and Thomas in Fairmont and volunteered for many years at Fairmont General Hospital. Deloris and her husband are members at H & H United Methodist Church where Deloris also volunteered her abundant talents in service to the Lord and her community.

Deloris loved visiting the beach and collecting sea shells. Even more than the sound of the waves, she loved cooking and baking for her friends and family. No one ever left her company with an empty stomach or the feeling that he/she wasn't loved. Deloris was happiest surrounded by her children, grandchildren, and extended family. She was steadfast in her devotion to her husband and Jesus.

Deloris was preceded in death by her parents, Ralph and Avildia Catherine Zinser; brothers: Nelson Zinser and Herbert Zinser; sisters: Mary (Zinser) Walker and Ethel Zinser. She is survived by her ever faithful husband and caretaker, David Lough; her beloved children: Cheryl (Paul) Hurst of Fairmont, Rick (Kim) Lough of Charleston and Susie (Todd) Moore of Fairmont; her adoring grandchildren: David Paul Hurst, Heidi Hurst, Morgan Lough, Ian Lough, Kara Lough, Mia Lough, Rachel Lough, David Moore and Megan Bartlett; and brother, Elihew Ralph Zinser. Deloris also very much loved her host of brothers and sisters-in-law, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Memorial and funeral arrangements are being handled by Carpenter and Ford Funeral Home. A private service is being planned for immediate family.

“ Susie My heart aches for you. When the Lord calls our loved ones home, he leaves a gift of memories in exchange. It's hard to understand why people are taken from us, but find comfort in knowing you were a special part of a well lived life. Love you girl “ Memories and Love last forever So glad God chose me to be doubly blessed by you as my Aunt!! We are saddened here, but I know God is delighted to have you home and I can only imagine all of those beautiful smiles welcoming you home. As a mother, I can feel the tears well up knowing how happy Grandma must be to have her baby home. I love you and will miss you dearly until I make it home. Prayers of comfort and strength for Uncle Dave, Cheryl, Ricky, Susie, and families during this difficult time and the days ahead.

“ Our deepest condolences to all the family but especially to Mr Lough (Dave) What a lovely lady has departed her earthly home.Mrs Lough was one of the sweetest people. She always had a smile to share. I only had the pleasure of meeting her when Megan played soccer with Tyler a few years back.After that it was always a joy to converse when I saw the two of you out. The two of you were like "two peas in a pod". The love for another and your family was very obvious. I feel confident that you were an awesome caregiver in the hard times. May God continue to bless you richly and may you find comfort in knowing that the two of you were an example of what a loving marriage should portray.Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.
