“ Francis will be sorely missed. My grandson and I have cut her grass and did other odd jobs for her. She had some of the coolest stories to share. RIP, Frances

“ I was very sad to read of Aunt Frances' passing. I have very fond memories from my childhood of her from my Grandma Ansel's house. She was always funny and kind and had a smile for everyone. My prayers and thoughts are with the family at this time.

“ Tim and Family,I am so sorry for your loss, she was a great lady who could light up a room. I was truly pleased when I saw her at Uncle Roy's funeral and we had a great time as usual. Aunt Frances will always have a special place in our hearts. I am sorry we can't be there, but I am leading a men's retreat that starts tonight and lasts for four days. Rest assured that our Lord has a new member of their choir in heaven. God bless you all. Love, Paul Henderson (Pee Wee)

“ I am sorry for your loss & am praying for you all. I remember playing toys with Tim when in grade school inside the house. And rolling monkey balls down the hill, playing croquet & hearing Frances laugh on the hill. God Bless! Scott Hill

“ My condolences to Frances's family. She was my mother's oldest and dearest friend. Frances was always so much fun to be around and it was so nice to spend some time with her at Roy's funeral back in April. Heaven certainly is more fun now with her there.

“ I am glad that nearly 4 years ago I had an opportunity to meet Frances. Such a great woman that always had a smile on! very loud and energetic I still remember her voice and her laugh! She seemed to be always in a great mood whenever I would come to do some gardening for her. Last time I saw her was at the dinner with the Faulkner family in Baptist Temple, I heard Frances looking for me (she was looking for her russian girl) and I was happy to see her and we even made plans that I would pay her a visit. I thought that she looked fine for her age though I didn't expect to see her in the wheel chair. But unfortunately our plan to get together soon has never worked out, I got shocked when I heard the news that she passed away. Frances and me used to write letters to each other, the very last letter I got from her dates back to 2014. Dear family of Frances Rush please accept my condolences. Dear Frances rest in peace, next time I would be in Fairmont I would visit you.

“ I thought maybe we had lost Frances when I didn't hear from her around Christmas and then again at Easter. Ernest Rush, her husband, and my father served together in WWII and became lifelong friends as did my mother and Frances. After I lost my mother, I adopted Frances as my "Granny Fran". What a wonderful person she was. I was always cheered up for days after talking to her. I don't know why it took me so long to seek this sad information. I guess I didn't want to know. I do know that Frances is with all of us, cheering us on and telling us to go dance or sing when we get down. God Bless Frances!
