“ Paul and your mother were great friends of my parents, Nora and Louie Talerico. They were always there for them in good times and bad. At one time they were like second parents to me. Even up to a few years ago Paul was still thinking of me and bringing me apples, tomatoes and garlic from his garden. He lived his life as a very good man. He was so much in love with Helen and it showed. I will miss him, but I will always be thankful to have had him in my life. Thoughts and Prayers for his family.

“ I truly enjoyed my time spent with Paul. He was a true American hero that loved his country, music and his family. I've never met anyone who spoke so highly of his loved ones. I will always treasure the time I was able to spend with Paul.

“ I have fond memories of visiting Paul, Helen, and family when my folks would come back to Fairmont for a visit after moving away. It appears they were welcoming to many as the name Talerico rings a distant bell. Remember the happy times. I wish you God's peace.
